

This software, known as the "RCM Information Suite" may not be used for commercial purposes without the express written consent of its owner.

This software and all its code and affects are the sole property of Isaiah Curtis Bowers, henceforth known as "The Developer," and absolutely nothing can change this without the express written consent of the developer.

This software may not be changed, manipulated, or modified, other than through normal use in the Graphical User Interface without the express written consent of the developer. This is to allow the licensee to test out the intended functions of the software and for no other purpose.

This software may not be copied for any purposes other than to consider employment of the developer without the express written consent of the developer.

The developer has the complete right to revoke use of this software at any time, for any reason or for no reason.

If the right of use is revoked, the licensee will be required to immediately destroy all copies of this software.

The licensee accepts full liability for the use of this product and releases the developer from any and all liability relating to this software and its use.

Any rights not explicitly stated in writing as having been given up by the developer are reserved by the developer.

This license supersedes any and all other agreements, terms, and otherwise.

The developer may change these terms and conditions at any time without notice.

Any legal disputes arising from this agreement will be resolved by an arbitrator chosen by the developer and all parties will abide by the decision of the arbitrator. The unsuccessful party will pay the costs for the arbitration and the legal costs incurred by the successful party.

By using this software, you are agreeing to all terms in this license.
